

Path to the 1773 Regulating Act

Events Leading to British Control of India

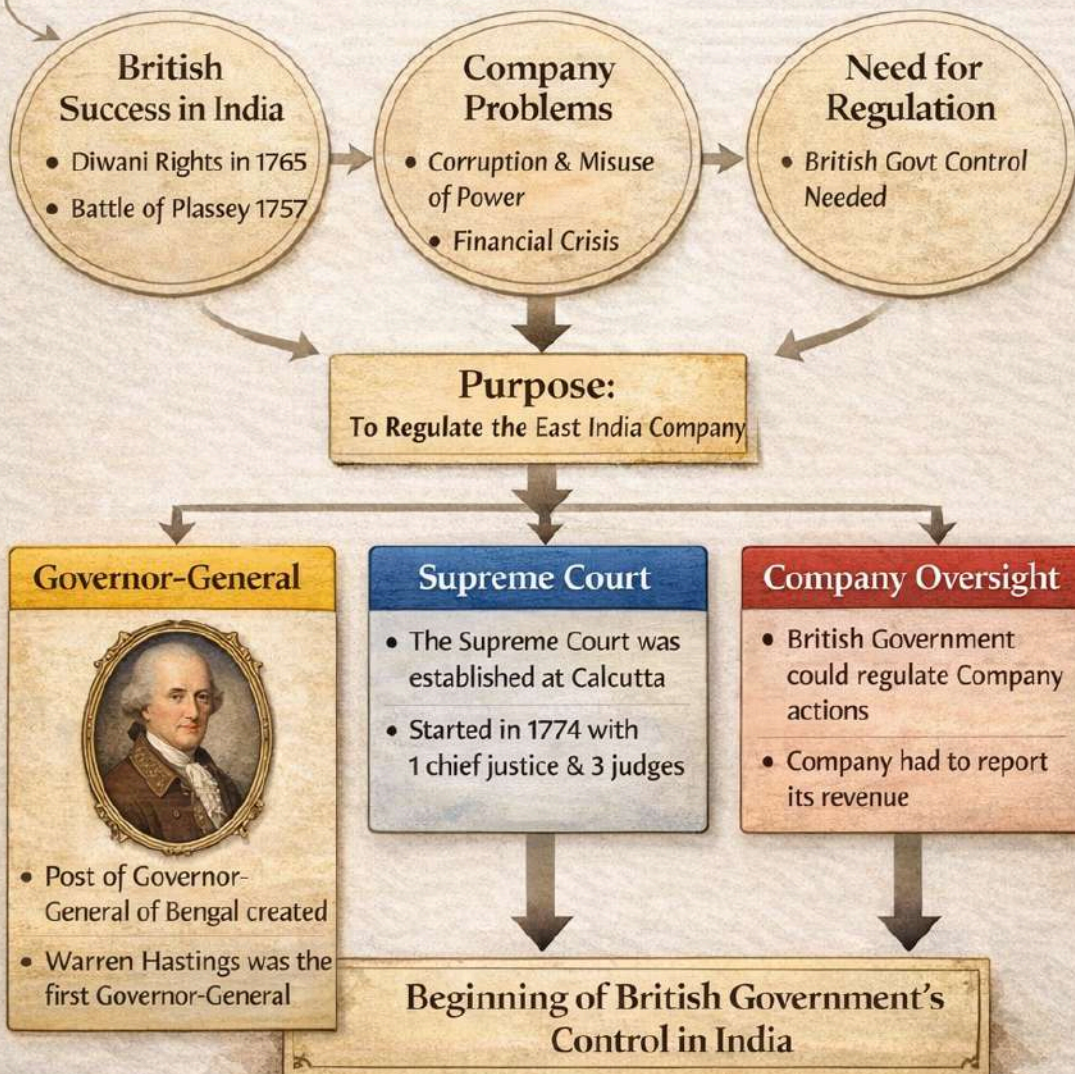

Regulating Act 1773

First Law Passed by the British Parliament to Control the East India Company in India

Background

- British Success in India
- Diwani Rights in 1765
- Battle of Plassey 1757

AMENDING ACT, 1781

— (ACT OF SETTLEMENT) —

WARREN HASTINGS
Governor-General of Bengal

WHAT IS IT?

The Amending Act of 1781 (also called the Act of Settlement, 1781) was passed to remove defects of the Regulating Act, 1773.

Calcutta, Supreme Court, 18th Century

KEY FEATURES

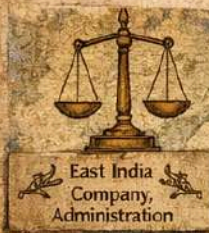

- ✓ Defined powers of the Supreme Court at Calcutta.
- ✓ Court's jurisdiction limited to Calcutta only (not whole Bengal).
- ✓ Governor-General and Council were protected from court interference.
- ✓ Recognized Indian customs, laws and traditions in civil cases.
- ✓ Revenue matters were kept outside the court's control.

BENGAL

IMPORTANCE

- ✓ Reduced conflict between Supreme Court & Governor-General.
- ✓ Helped in smooth administration of British India.
- ✓ First step in adjusting British laws to Indian conditions.

BENGAL

The Amending Act of 1781 clarified the powers of the Supreme Court and Governor-General, reducing conflicts and improving administration in British India.

Pitt's India Act 1784

Law by the British Parliament to Increase Govt Control over the East India Company

Reason for the Act

- 1773 Regulating Act failed to manage the company
- Corruption & mismanagement continued in India
- Direct supervision of Indian administration needed

Dual System of Control

Board of Control (British Govt)

- Created in Britain
- Supervised Political Matters

- Created in Britain
- Supervised Political Matters

Court of Directors (East India Co.)

- Original EIC Directors
- Managed Commercial Matters

- Original EIC Directors
- Managed Commercial Matters

Pitt's India Act 1784

Board of Control

- Supervised Political Affairs
- Under British Govt

Court of Directors

- Managed Commercial Activities
- Under East India Co.

British Govt Controlled Politics & The East India Company Continued Trade

Charter Act 1793

British Parliament Renewed the Charter of the East India Company for 20 Years

Background

- The British East India Company had control over large parts of India.
- Charter of the Company needed renewal.
- British parliament decided to extend the Company's Charter for another 20 years

Main Features

1.

EIC Trade monopoly extended

The East India Company's trade monopoly in India was extended for another 20 years.

2.

More power to Governor-General

Strengthened the powers of the Governor-General over the Bombay and Madras Presidencies.

3.

Board of Control Supervises

The Board of Control, created under Pitt's India Act of 1784, continued to supervise the Company.

4.

Paid from Indian Revenues

Salaries of members of the Board of Control were paid from Indian revenues.

5.

Greater Authority to Governor-General

The Governor-General was given greater authority in administrative decisions.

Importance

- Continued the East India Company's rule in India
- Strengthened centralized administration under the Governor-General
- Maintained the dual system of control (British Government + Company)

PROVISIONS OF THE CHARTER ACT OF 1813

End of Trade Monopoly

Monopoly on Tea, Opium & Trade with China

Extension of Company Rule

Rule Extended
for 20 Years

Under
British Crown

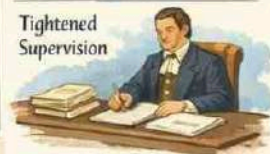

British Crown Declared Supreme Authority

Crown as Supreme Ruler of India

Board of Control's Powers Increased

Tightened
Supervision

₹1 Lakh for Education

Funds for Literature & Science

Permission to Missionaries

Missionaries
Allowed in India

Missionaries Allowed in India

Guaranteed Dividend

10.5% to Shareholders

Parliamentary Control Over Laws

Laws Sent to British Parliament

Financial Accounts Separated

Trade & Land Revenue Accounts

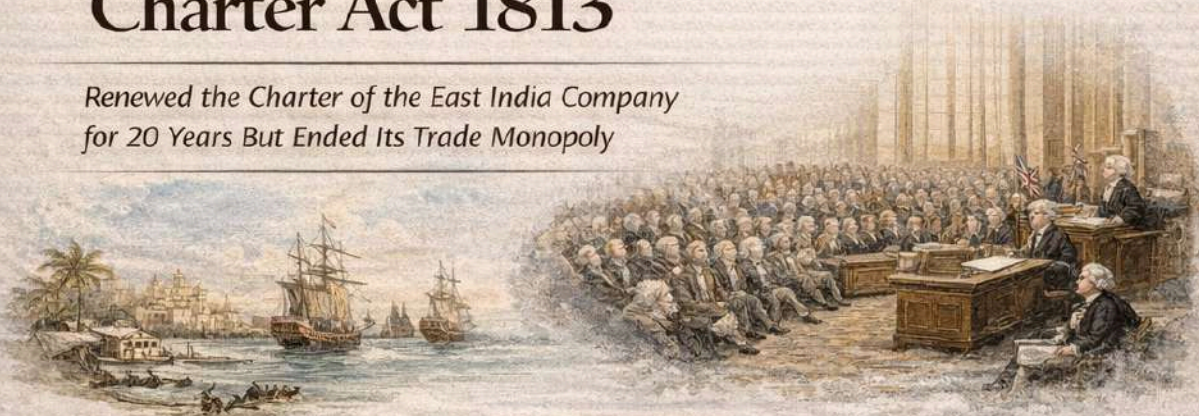

Tax Powers to Local Bodies

Local Govt
Tax Authority

Charter Act 1813

Renewed the Charter of the East India Company for 20 Years But Ended Its Trade Monopoly

Main Features

- 1. End of Trade Monopoly
The East India Company lost its monopoly over trade with India. However, it kept monopoly over tea trade and trade with China.

- 2. Entry of Other British Traders
Other British merchants were allowed to trade with India.

- 3. Promotion of Education
The British government allocated ₹1 lakh per year for education in India.

- 4. Missionaries Allowed
Christian missionaries were allowed to come to India to spread education and religion.

- 5. Company Continued Administration
The East India Company still controlled Indian administration.

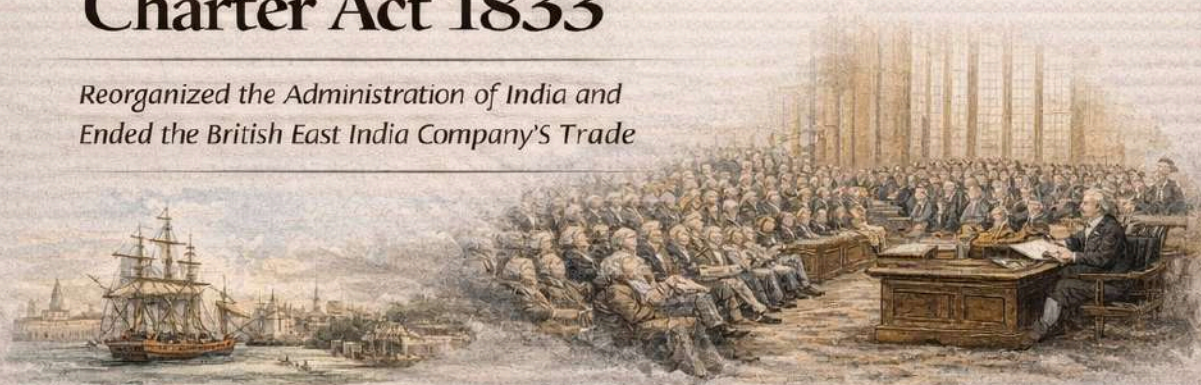

Importance

- Opened Indian trade to private British traders.
- Marked the beginning of British involvement in education in India.
- Reduced the economic power of the East India Company.

East India Company's Trade Monopoly Ended, India
Opened to Private Traders & Missionaries.

Charter Act 1833

Reorganized the Administration of India and Ended the British East India Company's Trade

Main Features

1.

Governor-General of India Created

The post of Governor-General of Bengal was changed to Governor-General of India.

William Bentinck became the first Governor-General of India.

2.

End of Company's Trade

The East India Company stopped all commercial activities. It became only an administrative body.

William Bentinck

3.

Centralization of Power

Legislative powers of Bombay and Madras were taken away.

Law-making power was centralized with the Governor-General.

4.

Law Commission Created

A Law Commission was established to codify laws in India.

5.

Equality in Government Jobs

The Act declared that no Indian should be disqualified from government jobs based on religion, caste or race.

Importance

- Centralized administration in India.
- Ended the East India Company's commercial role.
- Marked the beginning of modern legislative system in India.

Governor-General of India Created, East India Company's Trade Ended

Charter Act of 1813, 1833, 1853

Acts for continuing in the East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter

1813

Came in existence due to Continental System of Napoleon Bonaparte in Europe (which prohibited the import of British goods into French allies in Europe).

It ended commercial monopoly of EIC in India except Tea Trade and Trade with China.

Rs.1 lac will be given for the Promotion of education in India. And other financial grants were made for the Revival of Indian Literature and promotion of Science.

Christian missionaries were allowed to come to British India and preach religion.

1833

Monopoly was completely ended.

Ended activities of EIC as commercial body, and moved towards administrative body.

Indian Law commission was made under the chairmanship of Lord Macaulay (To codify all Indian Law)

Governor General of Bengal will be now Governor General of India. (Lord William Bentinck- 1st Gov Gen of India)

Deprived the powers of Gov of Bombay and Madras and shifted to Gov Gen of India.

1853

Separated the Legislative and Executive functions of Governor General's Council. Executive powers were given to Gov Gen Council. But a 6 member body was made for Legislative matters. Out of 6, four members were from Local government of Agra, Madras, Bombay, Bengal.

Open recruitment of Civil Services. 1864- SATYENDRA NATH TAGORE became 1st Indian Civil Servant.

Ques- Charter acts passed in India were equally important in changing the political and economical struggle in Europe. Evaluate.

studyforcivilservices

9696066089, 8564880530

studyforcivils

7838692618

study for civil services

studyforcivil.services

studyforcivilservices.com

@studyforcivilservices

Charter Act 1853

*Last Charter Act of the East India Company
Reforming the Administration of British India*

Main Features (Important for Exams)

1. Separated Legislative and Executive Functions

- The Governor-General's Council was expanded
- A separate legislative council was created for law-making.

2. Open Competition for Civil Services

- Introduced competitive examinations for recruitment to civil services.
- This later became the Indian Civil Service (ICS) system.

3. Representation from Provinces

- Legislative Council included members from
- Bombay, Madras, Bengal, and North-Western Provinces.

Company Rule Extended Without Time Limit

- Unlike earlier acts, this act did not specify a fixed time for Company rule.

5. Beginning of Modern Legislative System

- Created the foundation for a parliamentary-style law-making system in India.

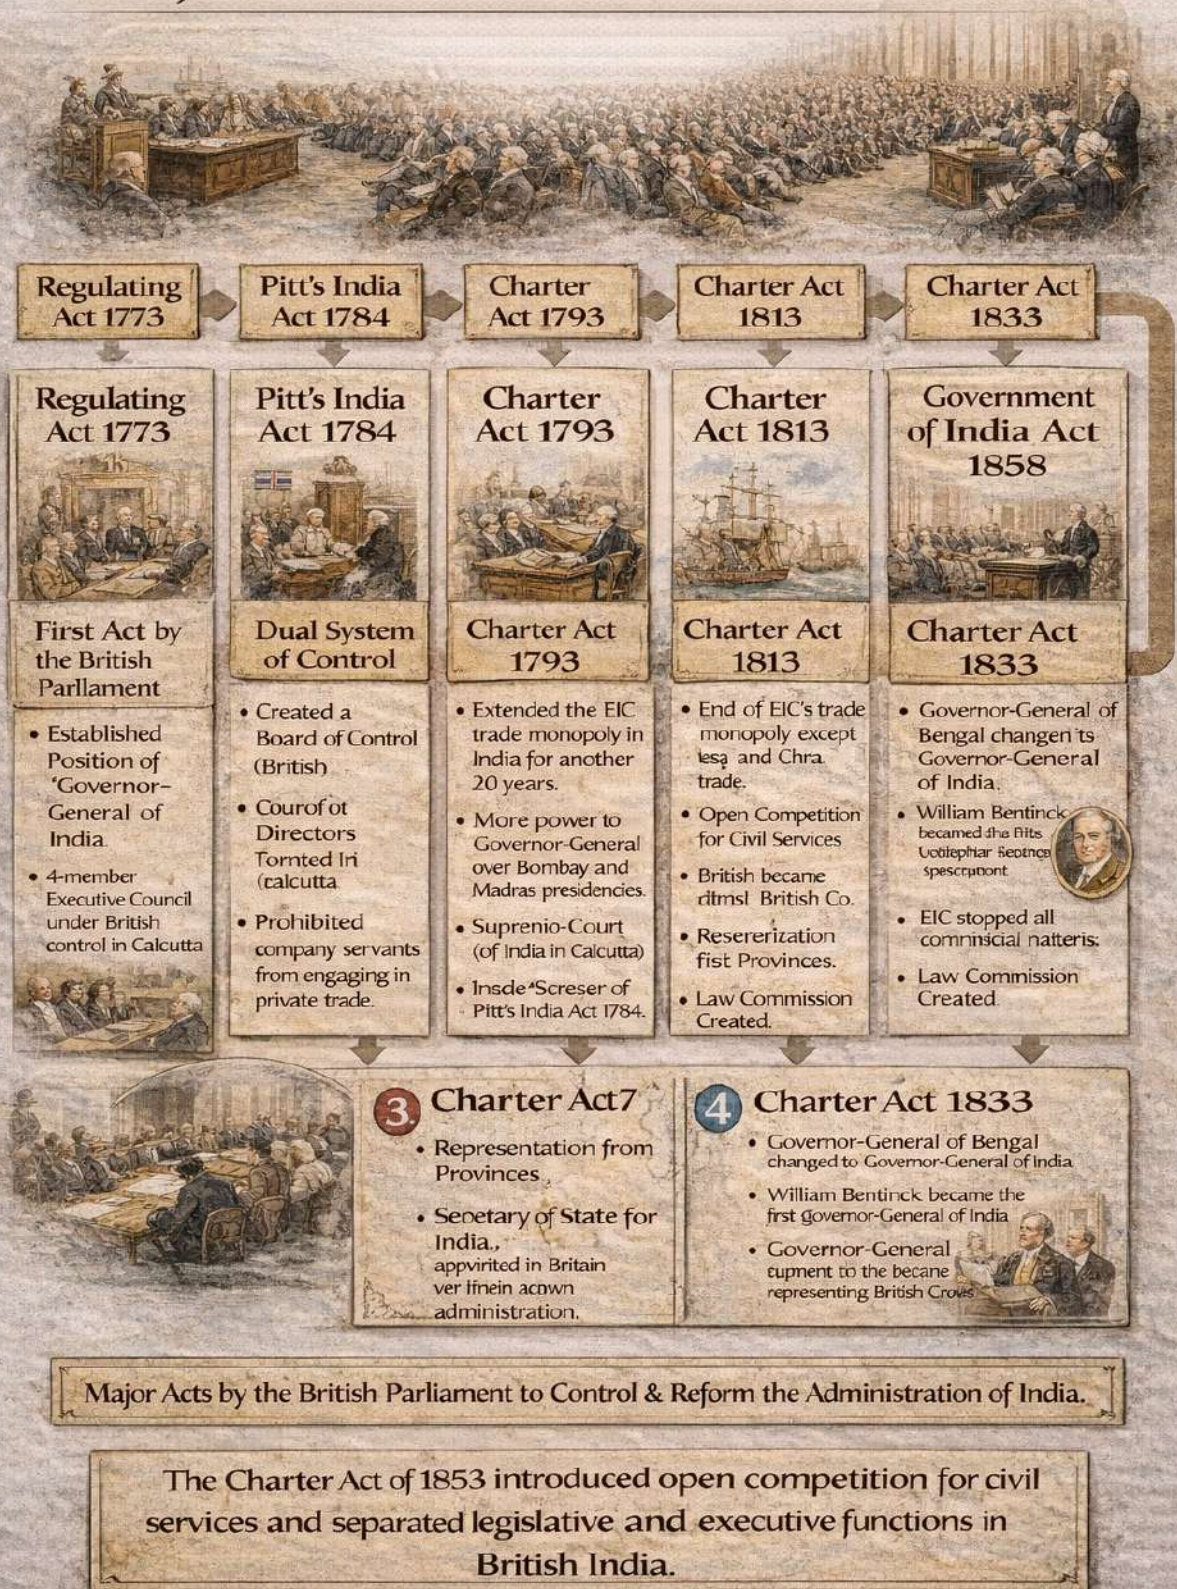

Importance

- Started merit-based civil service recruitment.
- Separated legislative and executive functions.
- Last Charter Act before the end of Company rule " (1858).

The Charter Act of 1853 introduced open competition for civil services and separated legislative and executive functions in British India.

Major British Acts in India (1773 – 1858)

Major British Acts in India (1773 – 1858)

Battle of Plassey (1757)

1773

Regulating Act (1773)

- Established Position "Governor-General"
- Formed A member Executive Council

1784

Pitt's India Act (1784)

- Created a Board of Control
- Created a Charter Act for af joining

1793

Charter Act (1793)

- Extended EIC trade monopoly in India for another 20 years.
- Formed Eritan ea. 1790 by British Govt.

1813

Charter Act (1813)

- End of Trade trade monopoly in India
- Entry of Other Traders.

1833

Charter Act (1833)

- Governor-General of India Creatiat
- Missionaries allowed from ergring

1853

Charter Act (1853)

- Governor-General-General ec
- Company General ed tcompany.

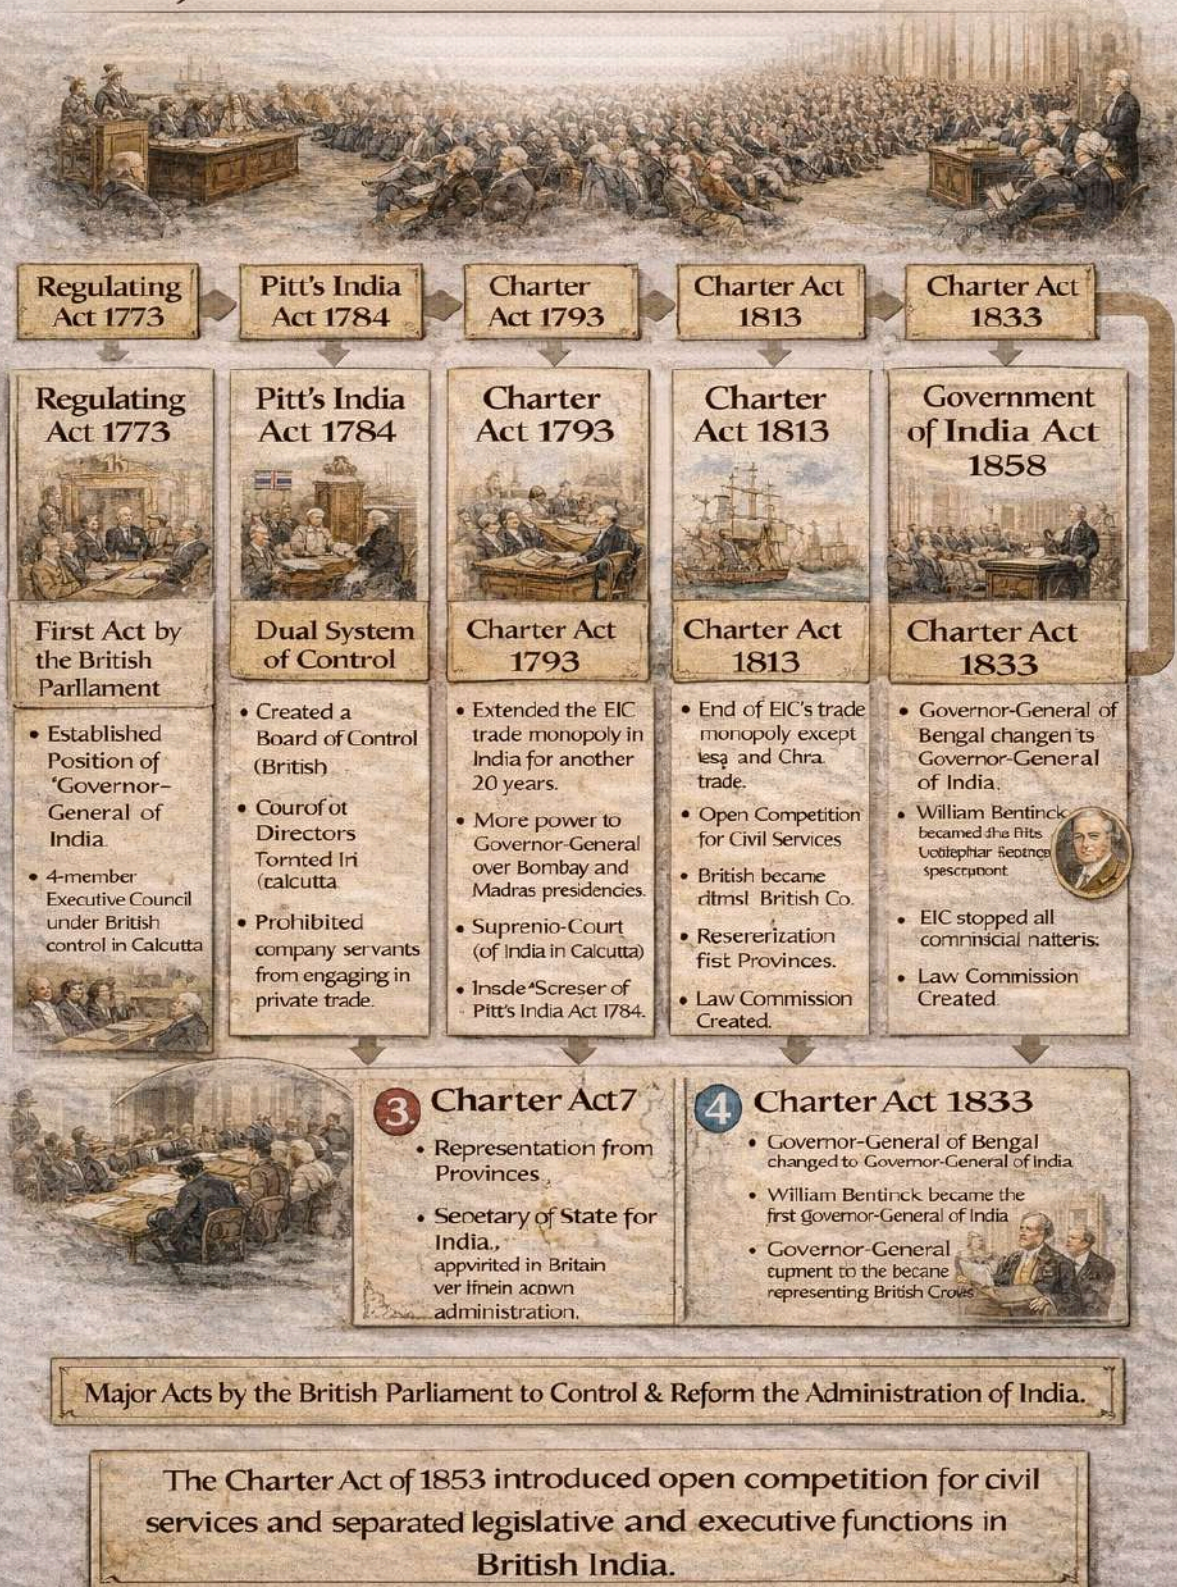

1857

Revolt of 1857

- Abolished the East India Company
- Rule of India transferred to the British Crown.
- Created post of "Viceroy of India" as head of admini stration.
- Secretary of State for India appnpointed in Britain.

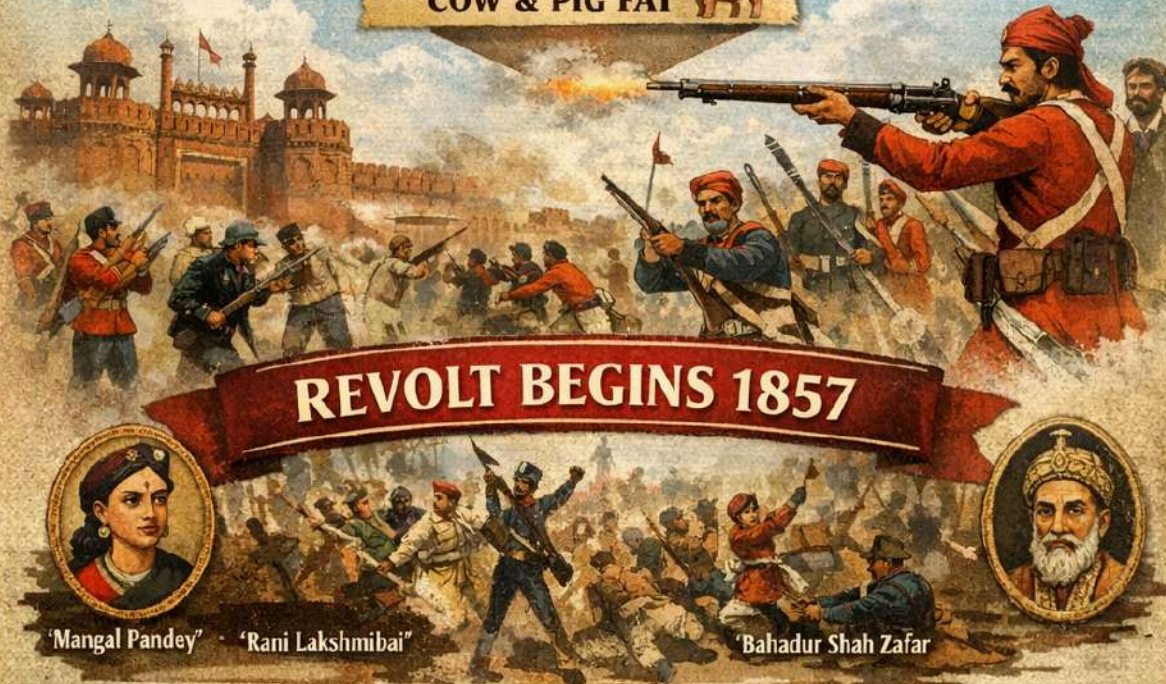

Government of India Act (1858 - 1858)

Major British Acts in India (1773 – 1858)

CAUSES OF DISCONTENT (1853-1856)

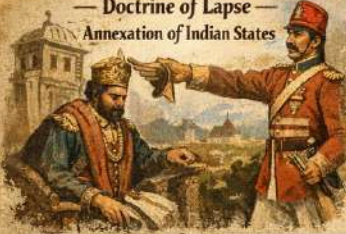

ROOTS OF DISCONTENT (1853-1856)

CAUSES OF THE REVOLT OF 1857 (1853-1857)

ANNEXATION POLICY

- Doctrine of Lapse —
- Annexation of Indian States —

ECONOMIC EXPLOITATION

- High Taxes & Land Seizures —
- Destruction of Handicrafts —

SOCIAL & RELIGIOUS INTERFERENCE

- Westernization —
- Conversions & Reforms —

MILITARY GRIEVANCES

- Low Pay & Discrimination —
- New Enfield Rifle Cartridges —

HUMILIATION OF INDIANS

- Racist Attitudes —
- Dishonor to Sepoys —

THEORIES & SPARKS

- Circulation of Greased Cartridge Rumor —
- Prophecies of Revolt —

RESENTMENT & ANGER AMONG INDIANS

1857 का विद्रोह

» क्या हुआ ? «

शुरुआत

10 मई 1857, मेरठ में विद्रोह

मेरठ में विद्रोह भड़का और दिल्ली पर कूच

फेलाव

• दिल्ली •

• बहादुर शाह जफर का मेता थापिन

• कानपु - नाना शाहव

• झांसी - रानी लक्ष्मीबाई

मुख्य चटनाएँ

• अंग्रेज़ दिकानो पर हमला

• भीषण मुद्द और विद्रोह

• भारतीय नेताओं का समर्थन

अंत

1858 में अंग्रेज़ों ने विद्रोह दबाया

• रानी लक्ष्मीबाई का बलिदान • बहादुर शाह जफर निज़ावार

पारेणाम

• ईस्ट इंडिया कंपनी का अंत

• भारत पर सीधा ब्रिटिश शासन

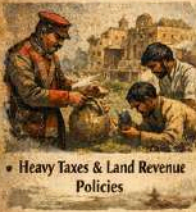

ब्रिटिश शासन के बिलक पहली बड़ी क्रांति

The Revolt of 1857

Causes (1853-1857)

Economic Exploitation

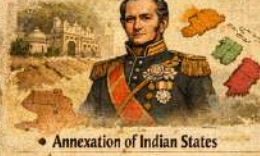

- Heavy Taxes & Land Revenue Policies

Military Grievances

- Greased Cartridge Issue
- Discrimination against Indian Soldiers

Doctrine of Lapse

- Annexation of Indian States
- No Heir, No Kingdom Behind

Social & Religious Policies

- Ban on Sati, Child Marriage
- Missionary Activities

Impact of Western Education

- Emergence of New Ideas
- Rise of Nationalism

Theories of Rebellion

The "Greased Cartridge" Theory

- Rumors of Cow & Pig Fat in Cartridges

The "Alien Rule" Theory

- Growing Hatred of British Rule

The "Hindu-Muslim" Unity Theory

- Unity of Hindus & Muslims

BUILD-UP TO REVOLT: 1853-1857

1853- Doctrine of Lapse Introduced

1856- Ban on Sati & Child Marriage

1856- Introduction of Enfield Rifle

1857- Growing Discontent in Army

THE REVOLT OF 1857: WHAT HAPPENED?

1. REVOLT BEGINS

- 10th May 1857, Revolt in Meerut
- Sepoys Kill British Officers & March to Delhi

2. DELHI CAPTURED

- Bahadur Shah Zafar Declared Leader
- Delhi Becomes Rebel Stronghold

3. REVOLT SPREADS

- Jhansi • Kanpur • Begum Hazrat Mahal
- Uprising Across North India •

4. BATTLES & SIEGES

- Fierce Fighting Across Region
- Initial Rebel Victories

5. BRITISH SUPPRESS REVOLT

- 1858: Revolt Crushed
- Leaders Captured or Killed

➤ End Result: <

British Crush the Revolt

End of Mughal & Company Rule in India

HISTORY OF INDIAN FREEDOM STRUGGLE

1857–1947

1857 REVOLT

1857–1858 1857

Sepoy Mutiny) Led Sarrar (Mutiny

- First War of Indian Independence

RISE OF NATIONALISM

1858–1905 1858 Social Reformers

- Early Leaders
- India Came No, 16th A and Rules)

Surendranath : 1858 Banerjee a Leaders Dadabhai Nacroji

SWADESHI MOVEMENT

1905–1911 1905

- Boycott of British Motel Goods
- Home Rule Movement Begins
- Jallianwala Bagh Massacre (1919)

World War I & Resurgence

GANDHIAN ERA 1919–1934

- 1919–1934
- Non-Cooperation (1920)
 - Civil Disobedience (1930)
 - Salt March (1930)

Mahatma Gandhi 1919

MASS MOVEMENT & LAHORE RESOLUTION

1935–1940

- Demand for Pakistan

Subhas Chandra Bose : 1930 Shand Congress

1930 Lahore Resolution

QUIT INDIA MOVEMENT 1942

- Gandhi Calls for British to "Quit India"
- Final Mass Struggle Against British Rule.

PARTITION & INDEPENDENCE

1945–1947

- India Wins Freedom
- Partition Creates Pakistan

15th August 1947 : Independence of India

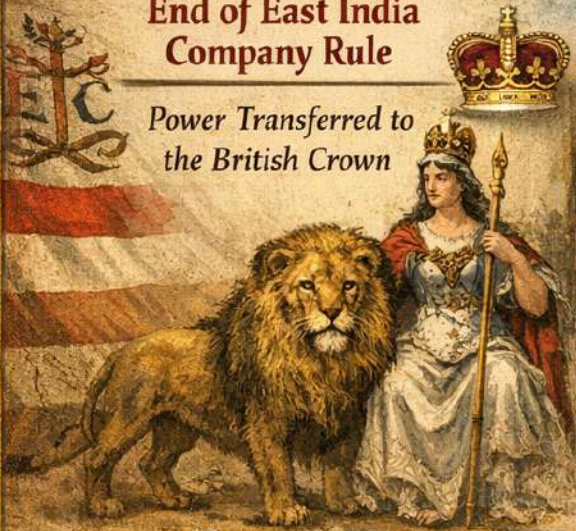

90 Years of Struggle, Numerous Revolts & Movements, Countless Sacrifices, and 15 August 1947, India became free from British Rule.

Government of India Act, 1858

End of Company Rule, Beginning of British Crown Rule

End of East India Company Rule

Power Transferred to the British Crown

Queen Victoria's Proclamation 1858

Secretary of State for India

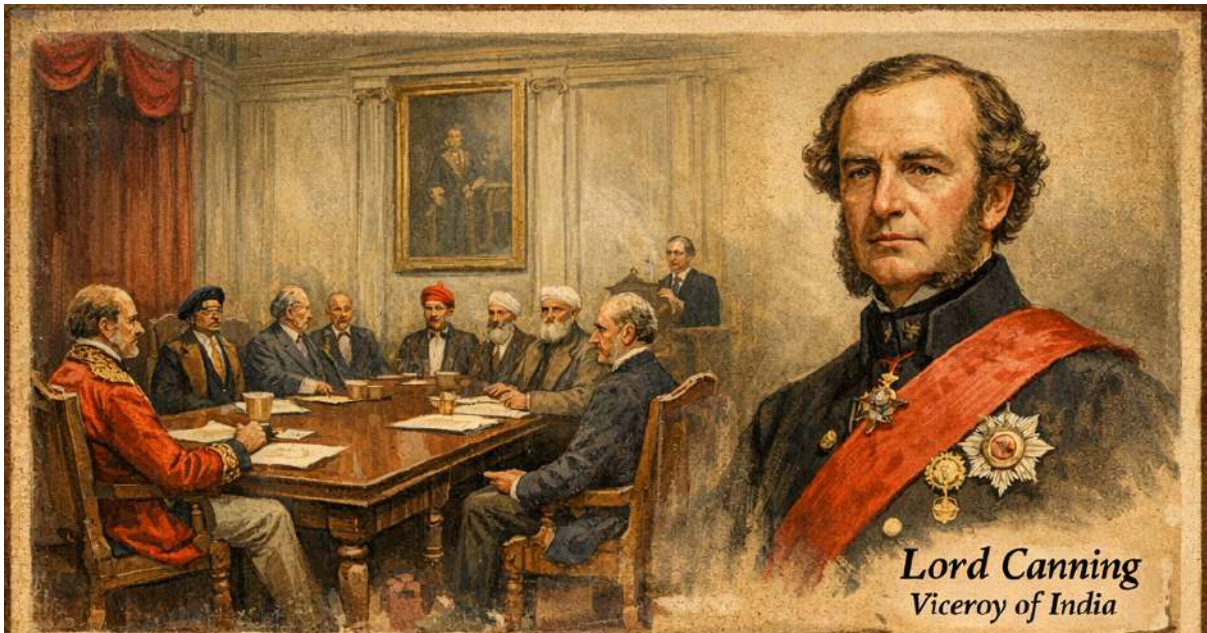

Governor-General Became Viceroy of India

Lord Canning

- Impact of the Act -

- ◆ Beginning of Direct British Rule
- ◆ Promises of Religious Tolerance
- ◆ New Administrative Policies

Lord Canning
Viceroy of India

 Nominated Indian Members
Limited Indian representation added to councils

 Legislative & Provincial Councils
Legislative Councils established,
Provinces (Bombay & Madras) given limited powers

 Decentralization
Provinces empowered to make certain laws

THE INDIAN COUNCILS ACT, 1892

Increased Membership

Number of council members expanded

Indirect Elections

Indians indirectly elected by groups like municipalities

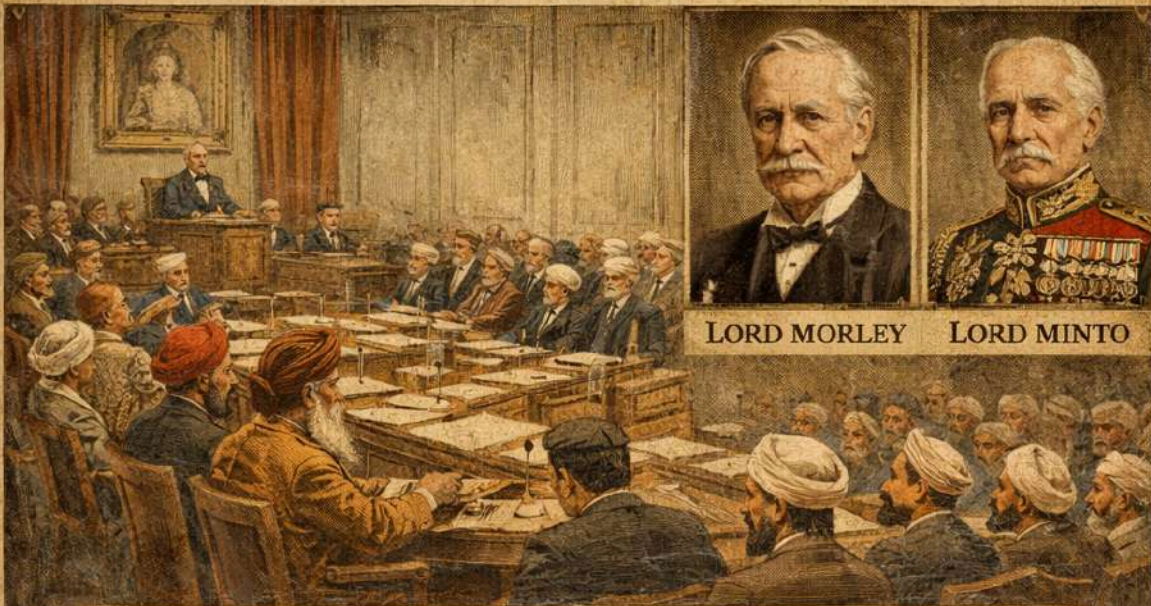

Question Right

Members permitted to ask limited questions

THE INDIAN COUNCILS ACT, 1892

THE INDIAN COUNCILS ACT, 1909 (MORLEY~MINTO REFORMS)

Increased Membership
More Indians on councils

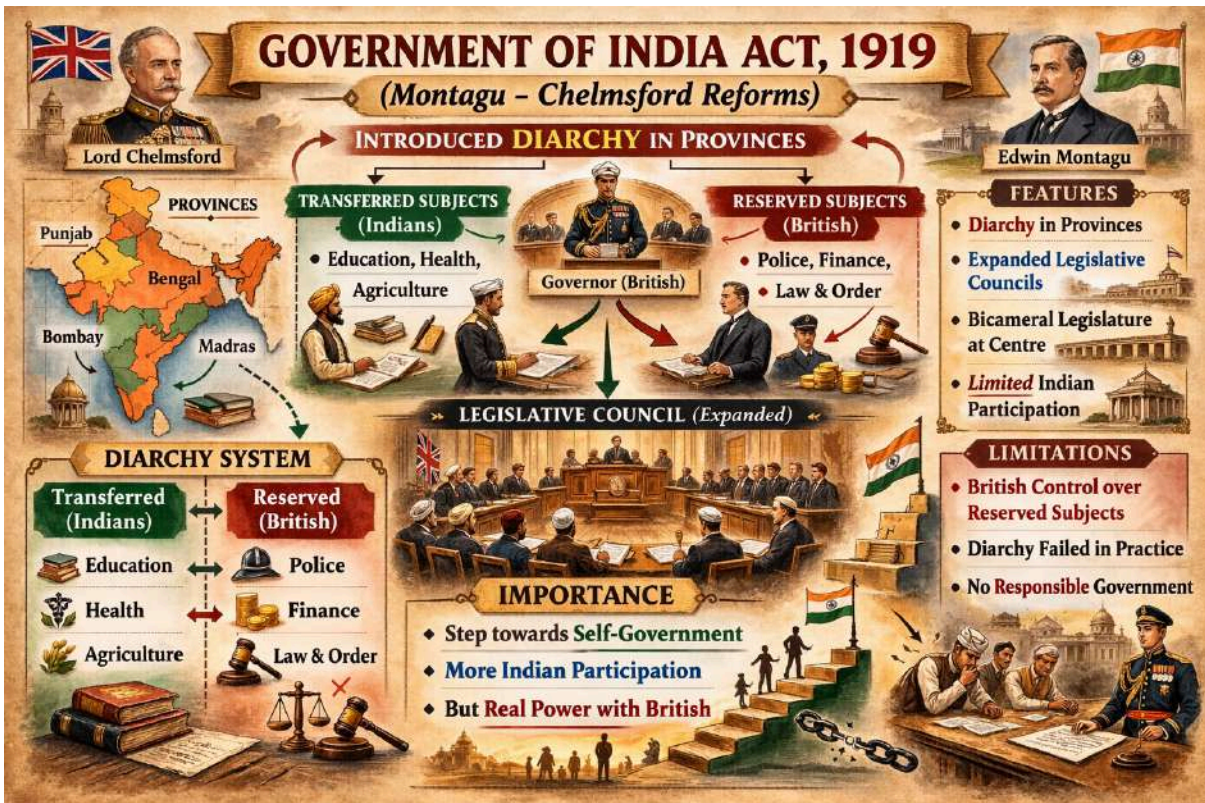

Separate Electorates
Muslims given separate representation

Limited Representation
Indians in Central & Provincial councils

STATUTORY COMMISSION

— (SIMON COMMISSION), 1927 —

SIR JOHN SIMON
Chairman of Sommission

WHAT IS IT?

The Statutory Commission (1927) is popularly known as the Simon Commission.

It was appointed by the British to review the Government of India

KEY FEATURES

- ✓ Headed by Sir John Simon
- ✓ Had 7 members, all were British (no Indian member) ✗
- ✓ Came to India in 1928

REACTION IN INDIA

- ✓ Indians strongly opposed it
- ✓ Famous slogan: "Simon Go Back!"
- ✓ Nationwide protests took place.

LALA LAJPAT RAI
Freedom Fighter

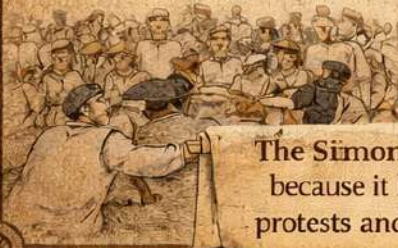

REACTION IN INDIA

- ✓ United Indians against British policies.
- ✓ Led to demand for SLF-Government
- ✓ Resulted in the Nehru Report (1928)

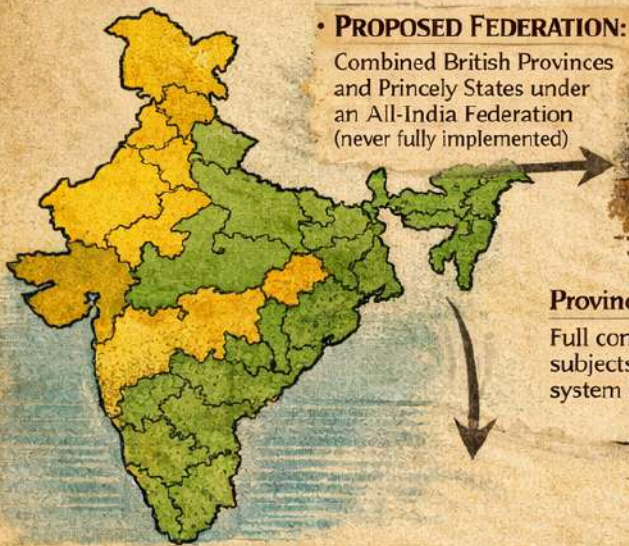

IMPORTANCE

The Simon Commission (1922) was opposed by Indians because it had no Indian members, leading to widespread protests and strengthening the freedom movement.

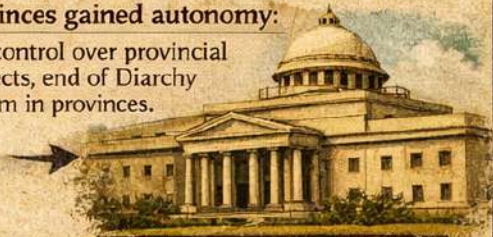

GOVERNMENT of INDIA ACT 1935

Provinces gained autonomy:

Full control over provincial subjects, end of Diarchy system in provinces.

FEDERAL COURT EST. 1937

A Federal Court was set up in 1937 to resolve disputes between the centre and states.

FEDERAL STRUCTURE

— BRITISH PROVINCES & PRINCELY STATES —

INDIAN LEADERS

EXTENDED FRANCHISE

More Indians given the right to vote, expansion of electorates (still limited).

AMENDING ACT, 1781

— (ACT OF SETTLEMENT) —

WARREN HASTINGS
Governor-General of Bengal

WHAT IS IT?

The Amending Act of 1781 (also called the Act of Settlement, 1781) was passed to remove defects of the Regulating Act, 1773.

Calcutta, Supreme Court, 18th Century

KEY FEATURES

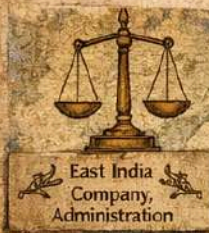

- ✓ Defined powers of the Supreme Court at Calcutta.
- ✓ Court's jurisdiction limited to Calcutta only (not whole Bengal).
- ✓ Governor-General and Council were protected from court interference.
- ✓ Recognized Indian customs, laws and traditions in civil cases.
- ✓ Revenue matters were kept outside the court's control.

BENGAL

IMPORTANCE

- ✓ Reduced conflict between Supreme Court & Governor-General.
- ✓ Helped in smooth administration of British India.
- ✓ First step in adjusting British laws to Indian conditions.

BENGAL

The Amending Act of 1781 clarified the powers of the Supreme Court and Governor-General, reducing conflicts and improving administration in British India.

STATUTORY COMMISSION

— (SIMON COMMISSION), 1927 —

SIR JOHN SIMON
Chairman of Statutory Commission

WHAT IS IT?

The Statutory Commission (1927) is popularly known as the Simon Commission.

It was appointed by the British to review the Government of India

KEY FEATURES

- ✓ Headed by Sir John Simon
- ✓ Had 7 members, all were British (no Indian member) ✗
- ✓ Came to India in 1928

REACTION IN INDIA

- ✓ Indians strongly opposed it
- ✓ Famous slogan: "Simon Go Back!"
- ✓ Nationwide protests took place.

LALA LAJPAT RAI
Freedom Fighter

REACTION IN INDIA

- ✓ United Indians against British policies.
- ✓ Led to demand for SELF-Government
- ✓ Resulted in the Nehru Report (1928)

IMPORTANCE

The Simon Commission (1927) was opposed by Indians because it had no Indian members, leading to widespread protests and strengthening the freedom movement.

NEHRU REPORT, 1928

MOTILAL NEHRU
Indian Leader & Lawyer

WHAT IS IT?

The Nehru Report (1928) was the first attempt by Indians to draft a Constitution for India.

→ It was prepared in response to the Simon Commission.

HEAD OF COMMITTEE

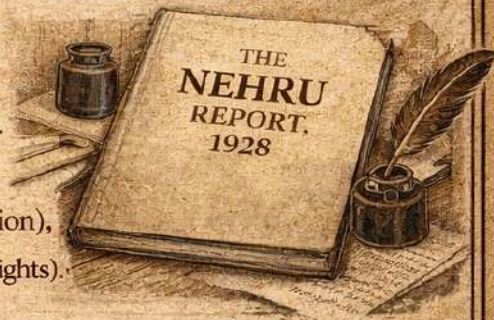

- ✓ Chaired by Motilal Nehru
- ✓ Proposed Dominion Status for India.
- ✓ Suggested a Parliamentary system (like Britain).
- ✓ Fundamental Rights included .
- ✓ No separate electorates (against communal division),
- ✓ Recommended universal adult franchise (voting rights).

IMPORTANCE

- ✓ First Indian-made constitutional framework.
- ✓ Showed India's ability to govern itself.
- ✓ Led to demand for Poorna Swaraj (Complete Independence) later.

→ The Nehru Report (1928) was the first Indian effort to draft a constitution, proposing dominion status and rejecting separate electorates.

KEY FEATURES

POONA PACT, 1932

MAHATMA GANDHI
Leader of Indian
Independence Movement

WHAT IS IT?

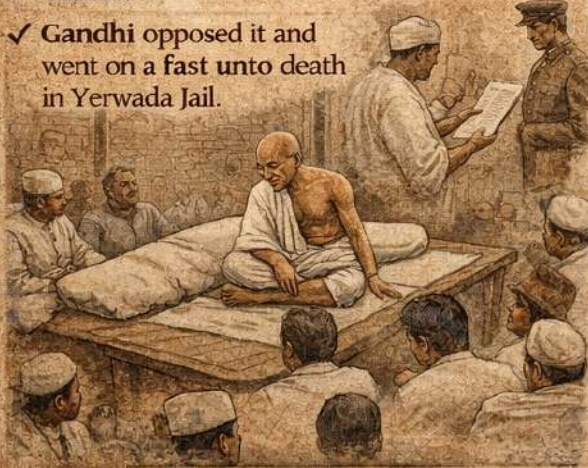

The Poona Pact (1932) was an agreement between Mahatma Gandhi leader of Indian independence movement

& B. R. Ambedkar
Social reformer & Architect of Indian Constitution.

BACKGROUND

- ✓ British announced Communal Award (1932) giving separate electorates to Depressed Classes.
- ✓ Gandhi opposed it and went on a fast unto death in Yerwada Jail.

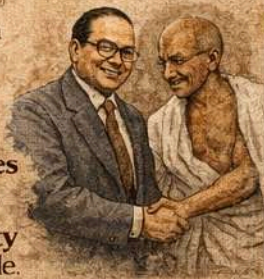

KEY TERMS OF PACT

- ✓ Separate electorates removed ✗
- ✓ Reserved seats increased for Depressed Classes in legislatures.
- ✓ Elections to be held through joint electorate system

IMPORTANCE

- ✓ Prevented division of Hindu society.
- ✓ Increased political representation of Depressed Classes (Dalits).
- ✓ Strengthened unity in freedom struggle.

→ The Poona Pact (1932) replaced separate electorates with reserved seats for Depressed Classes, ensuring representation while maintaining unity.